

Biography

Fetoun Srajeddin

Training Specialist Adv.
The Injazat Institute (Ti²)

Fetoun Srajeddin is an experienced Trainer with more than 10 years of experience in training & Training consultancy, development and delivery for a number of technical and soft skills courses.

She is currently a Training Specialist Adv. in The Injazat Institute (Ti²), Supporting High profile client of Injazat Data Systems, the leading IT and business process managed services provider in the UAE and the Middle East. She is responsible for training and coaching employees on all used applications and specialized implemented systems. Her focus over the last 14 months has been to deliver effective training and coaching session to support employees on their day to day duties and to make it easier for them to use new implemented technologies. On a second route of her job role, Fetoun is responsible for UAE nationals Career Development Plan design and implementation.

Her previous role was to deliver technical courses to high school students. The focus was to ensure that students are able to run small IT projects in teams.

Fetoun holds a degree in Computer Engineering and a Diploma in Data Processing Management.